CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY (As stated in Article 10 of the Opus One Bylaws)

The purpose of this Conflict of Interest Policy is to protect this tax-exempt corporation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the corporation or any "disqualified person" as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations and which might result in a possible "excess benefit transaction" as defined in Section 4958(c)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958 of the IRS Regulations. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2. Definitions

a. Interested Person. Any director, principal officer, delegated powers, or any other person who is a "disqualified person" as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

b. Financial Interest. A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

1. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement;
2. A compensation arrangement with the corporation or with any entity or individual with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement; or
3. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Section 3, paragraph B, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate Executive Committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Section 3. Conflict of Interest Avoidance Procedures

a. Duty to Disclose. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

b. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the committee meeting or meeting of the Board of Directors while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Board of Directors or Executive Committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

c. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest. An interested person may make a presentation to the Board of Directors, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

d. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy. If the Executive Committee or Board of Directors has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If necessary the Board of Directors will take the appropriate corrective action.

Section 4. Compensation Approval Policies

A voting member of the Board of Directors who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

When approving compensation for directors, officers and employees, contractors, and any other compensation contract or arrangement, the Board of Directors shall also comply with the following additional requirements and procedures:

- a. the terms of compensation shall be approved by the Board of Directors or compensation committee prior to the first payment of compensation;

In compliance with the Child Protective Services Law and Pennsylvania 2015 Act 15, Opus One: Berks Chamber Choir requires any adult (employee, staff, director, accompanist, contractor or volunteer) with routine responsibility for the welfare of children (under 18) in the course of Opus One programs and activities to provide clearances mandated by law for the primary purpose of safe-guarding the children in our care.

This policy is established to specifically protect the children served by Opus One: Berks Chamber Choir and its programs from child abuse and to provide guidance to facilitate compliance with Pennsylvania’s Child Protective Services Law, as it now exists and as it may be amended in the future (CPSL) by Opus One. Child abuse is damage to a child for which there is no reasonable explanation. Child abuse includes non-accidental physical injury, neglect, sexual molestation, emotional abuse, and child-on-child sexual abuse and “bullying.” It has become a critical national concern, as the reported incidents of both physical and sexual abuse is on the rise. All appropriate clearances for all prospective employees, staff, directors, accompanist, contractors and volunteers must be provided, documented, and filed prior to employment or engagement in volunteer activities.

All required clearances must be no older than 48 months when submitted, and must be renewed every 60 months. CODE OF CONDUCT FOR WELFARE OF CHILDREN

Conduct for In-Person Learning

1. A child shall never be abused by an employee, staff member, director, accompanist, volunteer, board member or contractor (hereafter collectively referred to as Opus One Representatives). Opus One has a zero tolerance policy and abuse of any kind may be cause for immediate termination or removal from their position. Abuse may include physical, verbal, sexual, mental abuse as well as neglect.
2. During Opus One activities, all Opus One representatives should whenever feasible avoid being alone with an individual child to whom they are not biologically or otherwise legally related. Whenever feasible, there should always be two adults in the presence of children and that both are clearly visible to the other at all times. Opus One Representatives should preferably conduct or supervise private activities in pairs.
3. Representatives of Opus One shall never leave a child unsupervised in an inappropriate or risky situation.
4. Physical restraint is allowed only in emergency situations where it is necessary to protect a person or property from harm. Any restraint will only be administered in an appropriate manner and must be documented in writing as soon as possible.
5. Opus One Representatives shall not release children to anyone other than the authorized parent, guardian or other authorized adult. Except in emergencies, written authorization should be on file at Opus One by the parent or guardian.
6. Opus One Representatives will respect each child's right to not be touched in ways that make a child feel uncomfortable, and the child's right to say no.

Conduct for Virtual Learning

1. All meetings will be password protected. Participants will be sent the necessary codes for each meeting. Directors will control access to all virtual meetings. Authorized persons will be granted access through waiting rooms. After all participants are present, meetings will be locked.
2. No recording (audio or visual) is strictly prohibited during any online meeting. Directors alone will control screen sharing. Only public chatting will be permitted. No private conversations will be allowed.
3. The sharing of personal and/or confidential information is prohibited.
4. Inappropriate behavior and/or language will not be tolerated.
5. Cyber bullying, racism, sexism, homophobia, and other forms of discrimination will not be tolerated. The Directors or members of the Opus One board will deal with these situations swiftly.
6. Parents/Guardians will be copied on all electronic communication with minors. At no time will anyone representing Opus One contact a minor without also sending a copy of the message to the minor's parent/guardian.

MANDATORY REPORTING

All employees, staff, directors, accompanists, contractors, volunteers and any individual who participates in a program on behalf of Opus One in a position that includes responsibility for the wellbeing of children, are considered mandated reporters and are required to report suspected child abuse if they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child is a victim of child abuse:

A mandated reporter must make an immediate report of suspected child abuse if they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child is a victim of child abuse under any of the following circumstances:

- The mandated reporter comes into contact with the child in the course of employment, occupation and practice of a profession or through a regularly scheduled program, activity or service.
- The mandated reporter is directly responsible for the care, supervision, guidance or training of the child, or is affiliated with an agency, institution, organization, school, regularly established church or religious organization or other entity that is directly responsible for the care, supervision, guidance or training of the child.
- A person makes a specific disclosure to the mandated reporter that an identifiable child is the victim of child abuse.
- An individual 14 years of age or older makes a specific disclosure to the mandated reporter that the individual has committed child abuse.

Mandated reporters shall report immediately to ChildLine and then thereafter notify the Executive Director/President of Opus One. Under the CPSL, a mandated reporter who willfully fails to report suspected child abuse can be subject to criminal and civil penalties. Reports can be submitted electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis or by calling 1-800-932-0313. If the initial report is made via telephone, the reporter must follow up with a written report within 48 hours.
